

Provision of Documents Substantiating Claim of Florida Residency for Tuition Purposes

A Florida "resident for tuition purposes" is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residency in Florida for at least twelve (12) consecutive months, preceding the first day of classes for which Florida residency is sought. Evidence of legal residence and its duration shall include clear and convincing documentation that residency in this state was for a minimum of 12 consecutive months prior to a student's initial enrollment.

Residency for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. Students must verify that they have broken ties to other states if the student has moved from another state, or in the case of dependent students - his/her parent.
